

How many nations have an index of economic freedom that is less than 2? On what system of law are each of those countries based?

1. Australia, British Common Law, 1.90
2. Bahrain, Islamic and English Common Law, 1.80
3. Britain, English Common Law, 1.90
4. Hong Kong, Natural Law until communist takeover, then 1.30
5. Luxembourg, Civil Law with Natural Law influence, 1.80
6. New Zealand, English Common Law, 1.70
7. Singapore, English colonial common law, 1.45
8. Switzerland, Civil Law with Natural Law influence, 1.90
9. United States, English common law, 1.80
10. Ireland, English common law and native customary law, 1.85

How many nations have an index of economic freedom that is greater than 4? On what system of law are each of those countries based?

1. Angola, Civil Law, 4.50
2. Azerbaijan, Civil Law, 4.20
3. Belarus, unstable Civil Law, a dictatorship, 4.10
4. Bosnia, Civil Law, 4.40
5. Congo (Zaire), Belgian civil law and native customary law, 4.70
6. Cuba, Socialist Civil Law, 4.75
7. Equatorial Guinea, Colonial civil law, 4.05
8. Iran, Islamic Law with socialist controls, corrupt and chaotic, 4.55
9. Iraq, Islamic Law and Civil Law, 4.90
10. Laos, Civil Law, 4.60
11. North Korea, German Civil Law, Japanese Civil Law, Socialist Civil Law, 5.00
12. Libya, mixture of Italian colonial law and Islamic law, 4.85
13. Myanmar (Burma), chaotic and socialist, 4.10
14. Somalia, chaos, ruled by warlords, 4.80
15. Turkmenistan, civil law, 4.30
16. Uzbekistan, civil law, 4.40
17. Vietnam, mixture of French colonial law and socialist law, 4.30