

1.

Spices

Coriander
Cardamom
Cinnamon
Cumin
Caraway

Cooking Utensils

Colander
Cruet
Carafe

Other

Chintz
Columbine
Citronella
Claret

2. Alphabetized

Carafe
Caraway
Cardamom
Chintz
Cinnamon
Citronella
Claret
Colander
Columbine
Coriander
Cruet
Cumin

Similar Words

3. A canapé is a thin piece of bread covered with cheese, caviar, anchovies, or other savory food.
A canopy is a covering, usually of fabric, supported on poles or suspended above a bed.

My mother told me to eat my canopy, whereupon I had to tell her it was canapé.

A funnel is a cone-shaped utensil with a tube at the apex for conducting liquid or other substance through a small opening.

A fennel is a plant, Foeniculum vulgare, of the parsley family, having feathery leaves and umbels of small, yellow flowers.

We tried pouring the fennel through a funnel, but it didn't work terribly well.

A bouchée is a small patty shell of puff pastry, used esp. for hot hors d'oeuvres.

A bushel is a unit of dry measure containing 4 pecks.

We bought a bushel of bouchées for hors d'oeuvres, and then set about making some for the party.

4. You would be most likely to make bergamot tea, as belladonna is poisonous!

5. No, it is meat!

6. One eats it as an appetizer.

7. One must use Bouillon as soup stock when making Bouillabaisse soup!

Same Words, Different Meanings

8. I dashed to the pantry to get a dash of salt for the cake.

When Ma found her husband playing games with the neighbors instead of helping her, she took his dice and diced them up in his salad.

I took a pinch of sugar and was going to put it in the recipe when someone pinched me, causing me to drop it.

9. Fondant is used in desserts, and doesn't belong with the meat stews.

10.

Bake

Barbecue

Baste

Beat

Blacken

Blanch

Blend

Boil

Braise

Brew

Broil