

A Review of Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse

When Lilly (or Yllil) gets her purple plastic purse from a local store, she wants to show it to whole world. But her teacher, Mr Slinger, takes it away from her when she jumps up in the middle of class and tells everyone about it. So she draws a mean picture of him and puts it in his bag. When she gets home, however, she finds a nice note from him and some snacks for her. Feeling terrible, Lilly apologizes and manages to make amends. She even manages to learn to love her baby brother, Julius. I really enjoyed Lilly's Purple Plastic Purse. My favorite part was the store scene. It was hilarious!
